NARRATIVE:

Erik Jones has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include mail theft, theft of personal property, false personation of another, possession of narcotic controlled substances, burglary, armed robbery, DUI, evading a peace officer, and hit and run with damage. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 3 year term for possession of narcotic controlled substances. Jones was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on July 18, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in September 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Jones qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offenses for DUI is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
